

The Watermill Center

a laboratory for the arts and humanities

Founder, Robert Wilson

www.watermillcenter.org

BILINGUAL ARTS EDUCATOR

The Watermill Center seeks a passionate and dynamic Part-Time Bilingual Arts Educator (must be fluent in English and Spanish) to support its growing education and public programs. This role involves facilitating arts-based workshops in local schools, participating in educational events both on-site and off-site, leading interactive tours of The Watermill Center and its exhibitions, and supporting administrative tasks as needed. This temporary position is funded for the 2025-2026 school year (September through June) with the possibility of continuing beyond that time, pending further funding.

---

About The Watermill Center

Founded in 1992 by avant-garde visionary and theater director Robert Wilson, The Watermill Center is an interdisciplinary laboratory for the arts and humanities situated on ten acres of Shinnecock ancestral territory on Long Island's East End. With an emphasis on creativity and collaboration, Watermill integrates contemporary artistic practice with resources from the humanities and research from the sciences to provide a global community with the time, space, and freedom to create and inspire.

Location

The Watermill Center, 39 Watermill Towd Road, Water Mill, NY 11976

Schedule

Part-time role; approximately 10–20 hours per week for the duration of the 2025-2026 school year (September through June). Position may continue beyond that timeframe pending funding.

Compensation

$25 per hour

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Facilitate arts education workshops and programs in collaboration with local schools and community partners
- Assist in developing educational content and lesson plans that align with Watermill's mission and exhibitions
- Adapt program materials to suit bilingual audiences, supporting accessibility and cultural relevance
- Lead engaging and age-appropriate tours of The Watermill Center, including its grounds and galleries
- Serve as a cultural ambassador for The Watermill Center within the East End community
- Maintain attendance records and assist with program evaluation and reporting
- Support education, public programs, and special events as needed.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree in Art Education, Fine Arts, Museum Studies, or related field
- Fluency in English and Spanish
- Minimum of 2 years experience in arts education, museum education, or a related field
- Strong communication and public speaking skills, especially with youth audiences
- Familiarity with contemporary and interdisciplinary art practices
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively with diverse communities

The Watermill Center

a laboratory for the arts and humanities

Founder, Robert Wilson

www.watermillcenter.org

- Flexibility to work occasional evenings and weekends
- Must have reliable transportation to travel to local schools and community sites

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience working with bilingual learners or in multicultural settings
- Experience in K-12 classrooms
- Experience in expressive arts, healing arts, art therapy, etc.
- Knowledge of the East End's cultural landscape a plus

APPLICATIONS

Please send a resume and a brief cover letter to careers@watermillcenter.org with the subject heading "Bilingual Arts Educator." Only those whose applications are being considered will be contacted. No emails or phone calls, please.

The Watermill Center, operated by the Byrd Hoffman Water Mill Foundation, is a proud equal opportunity employer and considers applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, familial or veteran status, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.